ABOUT:

Adding to the growing list of works for the fall season, Mikayla Bauer's latest work is fun and upbeat with a focus on ensemble phrasing and dynamics!

FROM THE COMPOSER:

"Heebie Jeebie" is a fun Halloween themed piece that uses multiple types of dynamics and articulations, all with a fun and upbeat pace. The opening section begins with the all brass and woodwind instruments playing in unison on the down beats while highlighting the percussion section. This eventually leads into a building point where the percussion section works together, building not only rhythmically but dynamically to the opening of the main theme. Once we reach the main theme, we hear our low instruments followed by the iconic and catchy melody that is played throughout the piece.

The middle section gives woodwind instruments a feature with the percussion section. This begins by highlighting the flute until a counter melody is added at measure 26, with the lead alto saxophone giving the piece a bit of a sinister vibe as we progress back to the main theme. We end the piece with how we started it - with the brass and woodwind instruments playing in unison on the down beats while highlighting the percussion section.

Overall, "Heebie Jeebie" is an excellent piece to add to a Halloween/fall themed concert. I hope you enjoy playing it as much as I enjoyed writing it!
