A TRIPTYCH FOR UNITY

TTBB VOICES

TUX PEOPLE'S

MUSIC.

ABOUT:

"A Triptych for Unity" celebrates togetherness, harmony, and spirituality in three movements: "Doxology", "A Prayer for Unity", and Benediction. They may be performed separately or together, and barbershop-inspired harmony and counterpoint shines in both the TTBB and SATB versions of the piece.

FROM THE COMPOSER:

"A Triptych for Unity" is a set of 3 pieces: "Doxology", "A Prayer for Unity", and "Benediction". Each piece can be performed separately or as a combined work. "Doxology" begins with an entreaty to the Trinity to come via its prayer-like unison, which begins to spread into parts as the piece progresses and transitions into the standard text of the Doxology in a chorus of praise to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. "A Prayer for Unity" draws its influence from a Celtic version of the Lord's Prayer and utilizes a fuguing motif to propel the song forward, culminating in a request for wisdom, knowledge, and truth. "Benediction" speaks a blessing upon the listener. Because of this, it mirrors the homophonic nature of the Doxology to ensure the blessing is understood for the listener.
