A TRIPTYCH FOR UNITY

SATB VOICES

TUX PEOPLE'S

MUSIC.

ABOUT:

'A Triptych for Unity' celebrates togetherness, harmony, and spirituality in three movements: 'Doxology', 'A Prayer for Unity', and 'Benediction'. They may be performed separately or together, and barbershop-inspired harmony and counterpoint shines in both the TTBB and SATB versions of the piece.

FROM THE COMPOSER:

'A Triptych for Unity' is a set of 3 pieces: 'Doxology', 'A Prayer for Unity', and 'Benediction'. Each piece can be performed separately or as a combined work. 'Doxology' begins with an entreaty to the Trinity to come via its prayer-like unison, which begins to spread into parts as the piece progresses and transitions into the standard text of the Doxology in a chorus of praise to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. 'A Prayer for Unity' draws its influence from a Celtic version of the Lord's Prayer and utilizes a fuguing motif to propel the song forward, culminating in a request for wisdom, knowledge, and truth. 'Benediction' speaks a blessing upon the listener. Because of this, it mirrors the homophonic nature of the Doxology to ensure the blessing is understood for the listener.
