GROWS

ABOUT:

With a charming melody and empowering original text, this joyful song is perfect for young voices!

FROM THE COMPOSER:

As a composer, I am often drawn to texts which use repeating or cyclical language to be as widely relatable as possible. In this instance, I had an opportunity to write the text myself. This piece was written for younger, developing singers, using images from nature to show them how strong they are and inspire them to persevere through whatever hardships they may encounter.

DURATION: 3'36"
