ABOUT:

Dancing melodies & spritely rhythms are the guiding forces behind this introduction to the concerto style! Its lively soloist material is an excellent showcase for any guest performer at the advanced or professional level, while its clever balance of pizzicato & arco passages in the accompaniment make this a great addition to any concert program.

FROM THE COMPOSER:
“Spring Springs” is a joyous dance which conjures up the first moments of springtime, when the snow has melted and the air is finally warmer. This short, yet lively, gigue serves as an introduction to the concerto style - it is a showcase piece for the solo violinist, violist, or cellist, while its accompaniment is intended to be suitable for younger string orchestras.
